JUST FOUR WEEKS FROM NOW!!!!

Reunion Chairman Daryl Watts (410 S. E. 3rd Street, Eagle Grove, IA 50553) and wife Karen promise the most EXCITING AND DYNAMIC schedule of events EVER, since John Armbruster kicked off the FIRST REUNION in the '30's.

From the WELCOME RECEPTION Friday evening, through BREAKFAST, LUNCH, AND DINNER, Saturday, to the closing FELLOWSHIP BREAKFAST on Sunday, attendees will be treated to GOOD FOOD, HOSPITALITY, AND AN OUTSTANDING PROGRAM; one of the principal speakers being a past Jaycee President, CURLEY HULMAN, LtGen USA (Ret).

Former Jaycee president, retired Lieutenant General Evan "Curley" Hultman (525 Martin Rd., Waterloo, IA 50701) will be a principal speaker. He was vice president of the Iowa Jr. Chamber of Commerce when he entered the Army as a private in the infantry in 1943. He was discharged in 1946 with the rank of captain. He ranked first in Infantry Officer Candidate Class. He served as a battalion commander, judge advocate general and commander of strategic military intelligence.

Evan was promoted to Brigadier General of the U.S Army Reserve and, in 1980, to Major General. A list of General Hultman's awards fills two-thirds of a page. He has served as president of three national associations and one international association. Somehow, in the midst of military service and civic leadership, General Hultman has sandwiched a distinguished career as a lawyer serving two terms as Attorney General of Iowa and several terms as a U.S. Attorney. Evan and his wife Betty live in their home town, Waterloo, Iowa, where Evan was president of the Waterloo Jr, Chamber of,Commerce.

Current US Junior Chamber National President John Nygren (PO Box 552, Marinette, WI 54143) will also be our keynote speaker at Saturday's luncheon. Return to California

Mate John H. Smith (11614 Ostrom Avenue, Grenada, CA 91344) writes "Well, it seems like it's been a million years in beautiful Hawaii. But, all good things come to an end, and so must my life in Hawaii. I have moved across the sea to Southern California and will live with my son for a few months until I can locate a new space for these old bones.

Two New Books

Mate Horace "Hunk" Henderson (1100 Gough St., #15F, San Francisco, CA 94109), past president of the Virginia and United States Jr, Chambers of Commerce, is the author of THE SCOTS OF VIRGINIA, America's Greatest Patriots and THE GREATEST BLUNDERS OF WORLD WAR II, How Errors, Mistakes and Blunders Determined Victory and Defeat. The books can be ordered at Barnes and Noble Bookstores on the Internet at www.universe.com, and by telephone at 1-877 823 9235.

The Scottish book relates to the second most numerous settlers in Colonial America, and their important role in achieving independence. They led in founding a government of circumscribed powers accountable to citizens. The Scots from Northern Ireland sounded the first demands for freedom and provided the majority of the troops who defeated the British.

The World War II volume reports what went wrong in the war that needlessly prolonged suffering and death. It also reveals how narrow was the margin between victory and defeat Adolph Hitler lost World War II because of his blunders and the Allies won despite their mistakes.

An Opportunity Nearly All of Us Missed

Mate Eugene Pheiffer (1237 Birchwood Dr., Monmouth, IL 61462) tells of the purchase of a local bank in Rockford, Illinois in the 1960s. The bank's president said, "Gene, come over to the luncheon club and meet Warren Buffet." Berkshire-Hathaway stock then sold for $35 per share. Gene didn't buy any. B-H stock went up to a top of approximately $84,000 per share and is now down to approximately $79,000 per share.

Happy to be Back Home

Mate Chris Vail (2559 Octavia Lane, Marietta, GA 30062) writes "It seems like only yesterday that Anne and I were fighting traffic in Northern Virginia, but we have been gone from the land of high taxes and dense traffic for 4 1/2 years.

"I now teach a defensive driving course and courses for those arrested for shoplifting and other offenses involving thievery. I am very active in my VFW Post, holding down more positions than I should, and am going into my third year as president of my Shrine Clown Unit.

"We don't see Mate Jeff Davis very much since he also returned to his roots in Georgia. Jeff can't see to drive, and I don't have enough time away from my commitments."

Wonderful Luck for a Mate Who Deserves It

Mate Billy Harrison (109 S. Cobblestone St., Rocky Mount, NC 27804) was walking past the office of a doctor when his heart stopped. Expert help just a few feet away made possible the rapid restarting of Billy's heart with electroshock. Brain death occurs within about five minutes after the circulation of freshly oxygenated blood stops.

It should be noted that equipment to stimulate the heart back into action is being obtained by police departments, airlines and all kinds of workplaces. You might want to encourage organizations in your area to become equipped to save lives. The electrical control system of the heart was described by Dr. Anton J, Carlson of the University of Chicago long ago, but the cause and prevention of sudden stoppage are not yet clear.

"Over the years I have learned a lot about coaching staffs, and one piece of advice I would pass on to a young coach - or a corporate executive or even a bank president - is this: Don't make them in your image. Don't even try. My assistants don't look alike, think alike or have the same personalities. And I don't want them all thinking the way I do. You don't strive for sameness; you strive for balance."

Bear Bryant

Jaycee Creed and Benediction

Chaplain: Father, We are united by a common bond of faith; that man lives by the will of his God; that God's will for man is good: and that the life worthwhile is lived in harmony with His eternal plan; because:

Response: We believe that faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life.

Chaplain: Father, Man-made boundaries have been drawn, separating the human race into many nations. But across these divisions there is evidence of man's universal brotherhood, because:

Response: We believe that the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations.

Chaplain: Father, Where economic improvement has been greatest, man has been free to follow his dreams of self improvement and self fulfillment , because:

Response: We believe that economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise.

Chaplain: Father, No one should be above the law, and the law should be the same for all people, no matter what status they hold in society, because:

Response: We believe that government should be of laws rather than of men.

Chaplain: Father, True treasure lies in the hearts of men. It is not the quantity nor the length of life that gives it zest, but the quality of living to advance human progress, because:

Response: We believe that Earth's great treasure lies in human personality.

Chaplain: Father, Life lived unselfishly grows richer, deeper and fuller. Joy is more enduring, and peace of mind more certain. because:

Response: We believe that service to mankind is the best work of life.

News from the US Jaycees Foundation...

We mates know that one of the great things about the Jaycee organization is the friends you make along the way. The Foundation is in the process of asking for your help with this effort, too. Many of you keep in touch with past Jaycees and individuals you have met over the years through Christmas cards, birthday greetings, and an occasional phone call (and nowadays, an e-mail). Please send us your list with names, mailing addresses, phone numbers and e-mail addresses of past Jaycees (other than Mates) with whom you stay in contact. We intend to utilize this list to help update our archives, and also look to these people as a potential base of Hall of Leadership honorees and donors. Please send your list to the US Jaycees Foundation, PO Box 7, Tulsa, OK 74102-0007.

Letter to the Editor...

Sadly, I read in the summer 2001 issue of the Log that the supposed reason for the diminishing membership of the United States Jaycees was "complacency" and I do not agree with the author. Here is my observation;

When the barriers were let down and the Jaycees ceased existing as an organization made up of MEN, as originally created by our founding Fathers, the numbers started to dwindle. And will continue to do so as long as the organization that we all love so dearly is no longer a Men's organization. It is truly a shame that the women who wanted to join not only the Jaycees, but every other organization that was strictly for men, that they did not continue to build thier own organizations such as Jaycee Women, Soroptomists et cetera. The camaraderie that the men had, and that the women should have, was the driving force for the growth of our organization. Not only have the chapters lost this feeling of comradeship but also as the other organizations that have also seen a drastic drop in membership. One of the things that we must all be aware of is the destruction of our national pride and desire to build communities that embrace the concepts of our Jaycee Creed. Maybe, I am out of touch with the present day reality, but when I was State President of the California Jaycees we had 16,000+ members and 375+ Chapters. The last that I heard was that the California Jaycees now have about 3,000+ members and 75+ Chapters and the numbers are similar throughout the nation. Would we not have been a greater organization if the women and men each had their own organizations with their own goals, projects and camaraderie? If you think this idea is so flagrantly wrong ask the Rotary, Kiwanis and other organizations that are slowly going by the wayside. Wake up America, flag waving after a terrorist attack is not what made America strong-- it was organizations that loved our Country and helped make it grow. Let's get back to basics--the new program is not and will not work!

I hope that my controversial views are not too outlandish to be printed in the Log. If they are not, lets see how many others agree. Yours in Jaycees, Mate Steve Santangelo, Past National V.P., (5001 W. Florida Ave. SPC 574, Hemet, CA 92545)

A Response...

Steve sent me a copy of his discourse on the whys and wherefore of the sad nosedive of Jaycees since our and the Jaycees' glory days. I didn't read the article that Steve refers to in the "Log", which I'm also unfamiliar with. However, if it gives the cause for the Jaycee downfall as "complacency", I agree with my friend Steve's abhorrence with that flawed analysis wholeheartedly.

There are a couple key points that require addressing here. The first being that today, as before, girls enjoy a "Girls Night Out", and boys enjoy a "Boys Night Out". The girls that I knew in Silver Spring, Maryland, and my wife was a part of it, were involved in a very active Jr. Women's Club. I like to say that I was a moving force behind having our Silver Spring Jaycees co-host a Las Vegas Nite with the girls. We had 200 plus members and they had 100 plus. I had always encouraged our wives to be active in local clubs such as the Jr. Women's club rather than have a Jaycee wives club. Our Las Vegas Nite was very successful.

On boys night out we worked on projects, attended meetings, and afterwards opened our valves at a Jaycee owned bar where Jaycee talk and politics continued. One needs to work and play together to build that camaraderie that Steve spoke of. This is easy for an all girls or all guys group to do but it isn't the same, nor is it viably accomplished in a mixed crowd. A simple example was when I was a Contracting Officer for the Navy in San Diego. Once a month a group of us would go to Tijuana, Mexico where some of the members would place some bets on horse races at the racing facility there. Then we would proceed doing what we really went there to accomplish. We would go to a different restaurant each time to enjoy each other's company telling jokes, savoring cocktails and wine, and eating something different each time.

Our group was diversified. One was a lawyer that always carried a number of new wind-up toys that he would entertain us with. Another was Manager of a large lighting company. We also had a Manager of a large Motel/Hotel near Seaport Village. The member of the group that introduced me into this hodgepodge of personalities and professions was a retired Naval Combat Pilot and past instructor at Miramar Naval Station's "Top Gun" School. He also was leader of a Jazz Banjo group. And we had a Salesman, Engineer and Doctor who rounded out the group.

We met at a designated spot each month and thoroughly enjoyed each other's company until one day the wife of the Motel/Hotel Manager came along with her husband and flippantly said, "Just treat me as one of the boys". I can see me joining one of my wife's nights out saying, "Just treat me as one of the girls". Needless to say she destroyed what we had going - male camaraderie. That ended our trips as a group to Tijuana.

The second point I wish to address is that it was Reaganomics that also was the downfall of Jaycees and other organizations. The trickle down theory only caused wives to have to become employed to satisfy the basic needs of family including house ownership - a very important foundation of family pride. Reagan and his ilk and their insensitive policies began the decay of the family structure. As a consequence, I'm sure these women that found it necessary to work also saw the need for establishing business networks which the male organizations certainly supplied more adequately than the female organizations. Consequently, the strong leaders of female organizations deserted them for male organizations and aided and abetted in the demise of these groups.

At first, male organizations didn't take lightly to the idea of women invading their sacred territories and rebelled openly. I was a District Governor at the time a young female attorney challenged one of my local chapters to gain membership. Now, that women have entered their holy ground, I'm sure that the male members are rebelling silently. For those men and women who don't achieve college accreditation, Jaycee and Jr. Women's Clubs were great learning academies. I for one feel that I gained my Masters Degree in Jaycees.

My wife has a Masters Degree in Counseling and I support her fully in all that she attempts to accomplish for the betterment of the little people in her Elementary School. But she also has to complement her salary by being a Tour Guide on holidays, weekends, and during the summer. My retirement moneys don't cut it, thanks again to Reagan. The bottom line is that the problem is a little more complex than "complacency" and "male vs female" membership. And frankly, I don't fathom how the problem will be solved until the present "Boys And Girls Nights Out" turn into positive, separate, fun nights by each group engaged in activities that benefit themselves, their families, and their communities.

Don Scroggs, Past National Director, US/California Jaycees

Heard from Another Point...

I never got a job by applying for it. They have always come as by-products of useful activities somewhere else.

Notice that happiness, too, seldom, if ever, comes from direct pursuit of it. Happiness is a by-product of constructive activity that makes you feel good about yourself.

Fame is more often bestowed upon achievers of modest demeanor. Grandstanders tend to offend.

Excessive worry about health seems to produce reverse effects in some cases. Why did the two outstanding scientists of my close acquaintance, whose study was the human brain, die of brain hemorrhages? Of course the number 2 is an insufficient sample for a scientific generalization.

The point I lead up to is this. The Jr. Chamber of Commerce movement served its members best when members focussed less on personal benefits and more on civic achievement. When the Jaycee Creed was an accurate description of the Jaycee culture, the organization enjoyed great public respect. Membership reached its peak. And members found that the best way to get personal benefits is by devising, organizing, financing and managing public service projects.
